Anticus Project No: 01.6065.23

Dear Mr. DeGraaf:

Anticus, LLC (Anticus) has completed a geotechnical exploration for the above referenced project, and we are submitting our findings in this report. We conducted this project in general accordance with Aldi's current Geotechnical Subsurface Investigation Requirements, and our Proposal No. 01.6065.23, dated July 12, 2023 and revised on July 20, 2023. This proposal was authorized by you through the execution of Anticus's Proposal Acceptance Sheet (PAS).

This report explains our understanding of the project, provides a description of the site and subsurface conditions encountered, and presents our recommendations regarding the site preparation, foundation recommendations, and pavement design considerations.

Anticus appreciates the opportunity to be of service to Sweetgum Environmental. We look forward to helping you through project completion. Please contact us if you have any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

Anticus Engineering, LLC
